	votes.
RICHARD SMITHWICK (new) ...	518
EDWARD MORRISSEY (new) ...	276
PIERCE E. WALL (outgoing) ...	265
THOS. BRENNAN (outgoing) ...	252
THOS. STALLARD (outgoing) ...	209

The first three were accordingly declared elected Councillors for St. Canice's Ward.

ST. JOHN'S WARD.

PETER DELOUGHRY (outgoing)	345
DAVID DOWLING (outgoing) ...	276
PATRICK PEMBROKE (new) ...	259
MICHAEL DWYER (outgoing) ...	240

The first three were declared elected Councillors for St. John's Ward.

Elections for Kilkenny Corporation were held in January 1914. Not all the members were due for election on this occasion. The city was divided into two wards for election purposes. The members elected would serve for three years. For the next election three more members in each ward would retire and stand for re-election. You can see that in 1914 some outgoing members lost their seats and were replaced by newcomers.
